California State University Sacramento
6000 J Street
Sacramento, California 95819

Dear Dr. Gonzalez,

Forty years ago Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. spoke at then Sacramento State College and it is very appropriate for today's University to commemorate that speech made in 1967. Dr. King had a message of fairness calling for individual dignity that appealed to all of us and still is meaningful today. That a recipient of a Nobel Peace Prize had brought his message to our community is something we should remember and celebrate. A pivotal figure in the Civil Rights movement, Dr. King's message was significant to all Americans and I applaud recognizing the 40th anniversary of Dr. King's address here in Sacramento.

Sincerely,

SUSAN PETERS
